

AVIAN DANCE SCHOOL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

Avian Dance School takes their responsibility to ensure the safety of its staff and students seriously.

- All parents must complete a registration form when joining the school with clear information regarding emergency contacts and any relevant medical history.
- It is a parents/guardians responsibility to notify the school of any changes to their emergency contact details.
- In case of a fire emergency, all teachers have a clear understanding of procedures to follow.
- The school undertakes a risk assessment of all halls or studios that classes are held in.
- We ensure every teacher has access to a first aid box and we keep a central log of any accidents that occur in classes.
- All teachers are required to have up to date first aid training.
- Parents should understand that dance is an active sport and injuries can happen, the school accepts no responsibility for injuries sustained via any means other than a teacher's negligence.
- Students will be supervised during class time only and parents/guardians must ensure the safety of their children in the car park, waiting and changing areas.
- Students/parents or guardians should inform the teacher of any special health considerations or existing injuries before participating in class.
- Dress code must be observed at all times to minimise opportunity for injuries.
- Water is permitted in cap bottles.
- No child will be allowed to leave class with anyone other than the parent/guardian unless confirmed on the registration form or with the teacher prior to the class.
